Presentations

Maintaining Professionalism When Dealing with Vexatious Litigants, Frivolous Filings and Rule 11 Violations 1.5 Professional Development Credit Hours

The presentation will explain the components of what a vexatious litigant is, both statutorily and by local rule, address the components of frivolous filings according to the statute, and explore Civil Rule 11 violations. The presentation will go through scenarios and explore how to avoid such litigation and how to address it in a professional manner.

Understanding the Risks, Rewards, and Regulation of AI in the Legal Industry 1.5 Credit Hours

This presentation will provide participants with the following:

1. Differences between extractive and generative AI
2. How to avoid pitfalls and security risks posed by generative AI
3. Necessary elements of responsible AI technologies for legal professionals
4. Impact of recent judicial, legislative and regulatory responses to AI
5. Advantages of using AI technology for corporate legal professionals

Medicaid Planning 1.5 Credit Hours

This presentation will be a basic overview of the long-term care Medicaid program, its benefits, eligibility criteria, and planning to qualify for said benefits and protect assets.

Presenters

The Honorable Matt Reger – Judge Matthew Reger has been a Common Pleas Judge in Wood County since January 1, 2017. He graduated from Michigan State University in 1990 and University of Toledo College of Law in 1993. He began his career as a staff attorney for Common Pleas Judge Charles F. Kurfess in Wood County. In 1996 he went to the Bowling Green Municipal Prosecutor's Office, beginning a career that lasted 20 years. He served as the Chief Municipal Prosecutor from 2000 – 2016.

Reger had a brief interlude, from 2006 through 2007, when he lived in the Republic of Georgia as a criminal law specialist through the American Bar Association's Rule of Law Initiative. While in Georgia, Reger trained attorneys in trial advocacy skills and worked with parliament on a new criminal procedure code adopting western adversarial processes. Following his return to the United States, in addition to resuming his job as Bowling Green Municipal Prosecutor, he took up the task of international election monitoring on an intermittent basis, having the opportunity to monitor elections in Moldova, Kazakhstan, Mongolia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Ukraine and Uzbekistan.

Reger founded Community Christian Legal Services (CCLS) in 2008, which provides free legal services to those in need. Reger is also an instructor at Bowling Green State University.

When he has some free time he enjoys hiking, kayaking, biking, camping, reading and all kinds of travel. Reger lives in Bowling Green with his wife, Heidi, and their two children, Elizabeth and Noah.

Adam Millay, Esq. – Adam C. Millay is a LexisNexis telephonic solutions consultant working with state and local government agencies. He serves clients in Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, and Tennessee. Adam is based out of Dayton, Ohio, and his goal is finding solutions that help improve his clients' daily workflows and understanding of the products LexisNexis can provide. Adam earned a Juris Doctor from the Salmon P. Chase College of Law and a Master of Business Administration from Northern Kentucky University. Adam attended Thomas More University for his undergraduate studies in psychology and history. Adam has worked in the legal field since 2014 and worked in a large corporate/financial company prior to entering the legal field.

Jessica Roshon, Esq. – Jessica N. Roshon is a partner of Taps Sutton & Roshon, LLC in Columbus, Ohio. She is a graduate of Capital University (undergraduate and law school). She is a Certified Elder Law Attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation and co-author of the Ohio Medicaid Manual, which is a highly regarded training manual for elder law attorneys across Ohio.

Jessica is an active member of the Columbus Bar Association and Ohio State Bar Association. She also currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Advocacy and Protective Services, Inc. (APSI) and on the Professional Ethics Committee for the Columbus Bar Association.
